1. The Amendment filed on 04/18/2005 has been entered. Claims 2-12 are pending in this Office action.

2. Claims 2-12 are renumbered as claims 1-11.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

3. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

- Regarding claim 7, in line 4, "8." has been deleted.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments, see page 7 of the Amendment, filed on 04/18/2005, with respect to the objection of claims 2-7 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The objection of 2-7 has been withdrawn.

5. The terminal disclaimer filed on 04/18/2005 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of U.S. Patent 6,304,106 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

6. Regarding claim 2, claim 2 is allowable over prior art of record after Applicants amended claim to include allowable limitations "a first resistor, a first end of said first resistor being coupled to a positive phase output node of CMOS driver" and "a second resistor, a first end of said second resistor being coupled to a second end of said first resistor, and a second end of said second resistor being coupled to a negative phase output of said replica driver" and "a third resistor, a first end of said third resistor being coupled to a negative phase output of CMOS driver" and "a fourth resistor, a first end of said fourth resistor being coupled to a second end of said third resistor, and a second end of said fourth resistor being coupled to a positive phase output of said replica driver". The closest prior art of record, Martin et al. (US 6,507,225 B2) disclosing current mode driver with variable equalization, either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

7. Regarding claim 8, claim 8 is allowable over the prior art of record since the cited references taken individually or in combination fails to particularly teach a method of receiving signals in a CMOS bi-directional current mode differential link comprising the uniquely distinct steps of "coupling a positive phase output of said data driver to a first end of a first resistor in said resistor-summing network" and "coupling a second end of said first resistor to a first input of said differential amplifier, and further coupling said second end of said first resistor to a first end of a second resistor in said resistor-summing network" and "coupling a second end of said second resistor to a negative phase output of said replica driver" and "coupling a negative phase output of said data driver to a first end of a third resistor in said resistor-summing network" and "coupling a second end of said third resistor to a second input of said differential amplifier, and further coupling said second end of said third resistor to a first end of a fourth resistor in said resistor-summing network" and "coupling a second end of said fourth resistor to a positive phase output of said replica driver". The closest prior art of record, Martin et al. (US 6,507,225 B2) disclosing current mode driver with variable equalization, either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
